

Apna Gaon 1 2001 Khajjiar, Himachal Pradesh

Located at a height of 6500 feet above sea level.
The following work has been 100 % completed:

- Construction of two rooms in high school
- Construction of toilet-cum bath rooms in high school
- Construction of boundary wall of primary school
- Renovation of class rooms of primary school
- Provision of uniforms to 450 students of high school

Room added to the school building - team of workers

Khajjiar: Road to school being paved

- Construct and repair the road from main road to govt. high school

- Provide complete bedding to 60 seniors
- A vocational training center in the village
- White washing/painting of the outer portions of the entire houses in the village
- Provide dustbins in the streets of the village as well as lake surroundings
- Construct and repair main streets of the village
- Provide name of the owner and house number plates to all houses
- Construct two water tanks for drinking water
- Tree plantations
- Construct two toilets in primary school
- Provide 20 electric street poles with a provision of electric tubes/bulbs
- Provide school uniforms to 45 children along with shoes and socks to the primary as well as high school students